CANDIDATE STATEMENT FORM

Candidate's Name: Sharon Rose Holland

Candidate Statement (250 word limit):

We face a daunting challenge to restore the promise of California. It will require changing course if we are to regain our global respect and influence. We must choose to put aside the lack of fiscal accountability, partisan bickering, social injustice and corporate greed and create a new future for our state; or we can choose to continue on the path of destruction. This is our decisive hour.

California was founded upon basic principles that made this state prosper and thrive. We must again embrace those solutions that worked, while crafting new ones to guide us through the murky economic and social waters we now face. California's founding fathers envisioned that the state would not borrow without a repayment plan; that the state would not bind future generations with deficits and no reserves; that taxation would be fair and simple; that we would face our common enemies with compassionate yet swift action. How far we have strayed from the course! Regaining our lost territory will require courageous leadership, bold vision, and extraordinary teamwork.

As a veteran journalist who has covered some of history's defining hours, an integral part of my training is to identify paths that lead to greatness and to analyze why. California's greatness has always been its people. This is the hour we must rise above apathy, end our hostilities, and envision anew the promise of California. Thank you for your vote.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FORM

Candidate's Name: ARIANNA HUFFINGTON

Candidate Statement (250 word limit):

I am running for Governor to break the hold that special interests have on Sacramento. To give the voters of California an independent, progressive leader. My opinions are not for sale, and my support will not be on the auction block.

I am also running because I believe that the only way things are going to change is if We the People become outraged -- and mobilized to remake our democracy.

Our failed political system has left California deeply in debt. Corporate fat cats get away with paying less than their fair share of taxes. We have crumbling schools but pricey new prisons. Our natural resources are for sale to the highest bidder.

I have spent my life as a journalist, author and social activist writing and speaking out on these kinds of issues. Now I am taking on the role of citizen politician to tackle them head on. After all, our founding fathers weren't professional politicians.

The time has come to take back our government. To make sure that it works for all Californians, not just those who can afford to buy a politician. I will put the needs of the people over the demands of the big-money elites.

This is not a question of right or left; it's a question of right or wrong.

Please join me in this effort. Together we can end the corruption in Sacramento. Together we can win!
